APPLICANTS' STATEMENT OF SUBSTANCE OF INTERVIEW

Sir:

In response to the Interview Summary for the interview held August 2, 2005, Applicants concur that claims 19 – 25, 27 – 30, and 32 were cancelled as the substance of the interview.

Since Applicant could not have responded to the interview summary before receipt thereof, the patent term adjustment for this application should not be affected by any processing of the this Statement of Substance.

Respectfully submitted,

NIXON & VANDERHYE P.C.

RESPONSE TO DECLARATION REQUEST

Sir:

The detailed action attached to the Notice of Allowance, in its first paragraph, indicates that the patent declaration or oath is missing. Further, requirement is made that an executed declaration be filled by time of payment of the issue fee in order to avoid abandonment.

Applicants did file an original patent declaration on with the US Patent Office on July 9, 2001. A copy of the patent declaration filed on July 9, 2001 along with proof of filing are attached. Also attached is a Supplemental Declaration. It is respectfully requested that the patent declaration requirement of the detailed action now be deemed satisfied.

Further, since the US Patent Office clearly did receive the original declaration, the patent term adjustment for this application should not be affected by any processing of the copy and proof now submitted.

Respectfully submitted,
NIXON & VANDERHYTE P.C.
